COMMUNITY PERSPECTIVE

Child abuse and neglect remains one of our societies least talked about subjects. By encouraging the use of a CASA Volunteer to participate in the process, it brings to light a deep personal level of what the impact of abuse and neglect is on children and where there are gaps in our system.

KID SPECIFIC ADVOCACY

The low caseloads of CASA Volunteers (2-3 kids at a time, usually a sibling group) enable CASA Volunteers to truly understand the cultural, familial and special/unique circumstance that brought the child in to care.
